Confirmed in Love

In our congregation, we are blessed to have youth and families from many different religious traditions and backgrounds. The act of Confirmation means lots of different things in different settings, so as we prepare for Confirmation Sunday next month, I wanted to share some of my own perspectives about how I understand Confirmation.

First, I think Confirmation is a powerful and important coming of age ritual. Being a teenager is hard work. Kids struggle as they move from childhood into adulthood. I'm guessing this has always been the case and most cultures have created rituals to aid that transition. I think Confirmation is one of those rituals. It is a time where we publicly bear witness to the fact that these children, whom we have known and loved since they were babies, are growing up. They are becoming adults. We give thanks for that reality and celebrate it together. [continued pg. 2]

Second, churches like ours are congregational in polity. This is basically a fancy churchified way of saying we are democracies. We make big decisions by voting. We vote to elect our officers, approve our budget, call our pastor, and make other major decisions in congregational meetings. At Confirmation, youth who have been confirmed are welcomed as full members of the church and are invited to vote in future congregational meetings.

Third, I see Confirmation as an opportunity for the church to, once again, confirm what we know to be true: that God knows and loves each of these youth, that God blesses their lives, and that nothing can break that bond. We confirm that we, the church, are committed to loving them during this time of transition from childhood to adulthood. We accept them for who they are. We recognize and celebrate their gifts. We know they will make mistakes, just like us, and we will love them through it. We are confirming them in our continuing love, which is rooted in the love of God.

Those of you who grew up in the Church and were confirmed may notice something is missing here. I didn't say anything about Confirmation as a time for kids to recite a catechism or make a profession of their beliefs. In many traditions, Confirmation is seen as a time where the pastor teaches confirmands "what we believe as Christians" and then the youth decide whether they agree. If they do, they are Confirmed. If they don't, they aren't. In some traditions, youth write their own statement of faith. Regardless, Confirmation is primarily about "what we believe" and whether or not you want to opt in and be a part of us.

I'm not a fan of this (in case you couldn't tell!). First of all, I think it is laughable to try and define "what we believe" as Christians because there is such a diversity of belief. Second, I think what each individual believes is evolving over time. It's not that we won't talk about what we believe - we will, of course, but, to me Confirmation is more about being a place to open up and begin those conversations that will (hopefully) last a lifetime. Not a place to come to final conclusions. Perhaps more importantly, I don't think Confirmation is about deciding who's in and who's out. We're all in, of course. Regardless of our beliefs or actions, we are all loved by God and it is my sincere hope that Confirmation can be a time when the youth realize this even more fully.

A final note and then I'm done! Confirmation is also an amazing opportunity for me, as the Pastor. It is a privilege to be able to sit with these wise young-old souls and learn with and from them. It is a joy to get to know these people more fully. In a position where I am often pulled in several direction at once, I cherish the opportunity to more fully focus on the youth as they are confirmed and spend uninterrupted time with them.

Please join me in holding our youth in your prayers this month as we journey through Confirmation together. Our Confirmation Class includes Dean Kinderknecht, Tahjai Gamble, and Nadiyah Gamble. Tai Amri Spann-Wilson and I share leadership for the class, which meets on Sunday afternoons. Confirmation Sunday is April 30.

Pastor Caela

Pastor Caela on Vacation

Caela and her family will be traveling for vacation over Spring Break. Sue Zschoche and Sean Weston will be on call for any pastoral care needs that arise during this time. Caela leaves after worship on Sunday, March 19 and returns to the office on Monday, March 27.

Pastor Caela's Office Hours and Out-of-the-Office Hours

Pastor Caela keeps her own calendar, so if you'd like to get together the simplest thing is to e-mail, call, or text to set up a time. She also has weekly "out-of-the-office" hours on Tuesdays from 2:00-4:00 p.m. at Radina's in Aggieville. You can always stop by during that time to catch up, share a coffee, share a blessing, and feel free to bring a friend. Pastor Caela typically reserves Thursdays as her sermon and worship preparation days and keeps Fridays and Saturdays as her days off, so Mondays through Wednesdays are typically best for routine meetings.

Lunch Bunch March 1

We join together with Bethel AME Church in an opportunity for members of our two congregations to get to know one another. Wednesday, March 1 at Prairie Star Restaurant (Meadowlark Hills). It's not for women only—everyone is welcome to join us for lunch at 11:30 a.m. (Find monthly Lunch Bunch locations by going to the church website at www.uccmanhattan.org and then clicking on Community Life/Events Calendar.)

Picture Directory Arriving This Spring

The Board of Deacons has been working with our staff and we are pleased to announce a picture directory will be arriving this Spring. Won't it be great to finally be able to put faces with names? Even better, our new directory will also have an online component that you'll be able to access from www.instantchurchdirectory.com AND a free app for your smartphone or tablet. We hope to begin rolling out the online directory in March and new print copies should be available in early April.

You can help us prepare for this new directory in two important ways:

1) Please begin thinking of a photo of you/your family that you'd like to use in the directory. Once the online version is launched, you will have the opportunity to upload the photo. If you do not have access to a digital photo, there will be other options available.

2) Please check to see if the contact information we have on file is correct. If you wish to use the online directory or app, please ensure we have your correct e-mail address, as it will become your username. You can check our current records by viewing the sample directory hanging on the office door.

Spring Ahead - Sunday, March 12 Daylight Saving Time begins.

Be sure to set your clock ahead one hour on Saturday night.

Ministry of the Decorative Scissors

The next retreat of the Ministry of the Decorative Scissors is from 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, March 2 until 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 4 in Andover Hall. A second retreat will be held March 30-April 1. Everyone is welcome. There are no guarantees that you will complete any projects, but you will have fun and meet delightful people. Come for an hour or for the whole time! Feel free to bring a snack to share. For more information, contact Sue Gerth.

Mrunch, March 4

Our next Mrunch will be Saturday, March 4. This month we'll be meeting at Amanda Tross's house from 9-11 am. If you like to knit or crochet feel free to bring a project to work on, and if you'd like to learn there will be someone to teach. Childcare will be provided at the church if needed - please let me know a week in advance so that nursery staff can be arranged. Mrunch is a time for mothers of elementary aged kids and younger (even if you are just expecting) to come and enjoy a peaceful supportive environment with other mothers in the same season of life. Questions? Contact Andrea Chamberlain.

Worship with Muslim Neighbors

As a part of Kansas Interfaith Action's "Stand With Muslim Neighbors" week, we are pleased to announce that several people who are a part of the Islamic Center of Manhattan have agreed to join us on Sunday, March 5th. Syed Haroon Bin Farrukh will be delivering the sermon with Pastor Caela and Muhammad Sajidur Rahman, President of the K-State Islamic Student Association will also join us. We are thankful for our neighbors' willingness to be a part of worship that morning and look forward to welcoming our guests warmly.

"Stand with Muslim Neighbors" – KIFA Advocacy Day in Topeka

Monday, March 13 from 9:30am-Noon

As a culmination of "Stand With Muslim Neighbors" Week, we - Muslims, Christians, Jews, Unitarians, agnostics, and others - will visit the state capitol to hold a rally/press event and meet with our legislators, to let them know how important our Muslim neighbors are to the well-being of our communities and how we no longer want to see them victimized or singled-out, legally or politically.

Name Tags = Hospitality

We've had a lot of new folks in worship these past few months. This is your friendly reminder to please wear your name tag each Sunday during worship. Name tags help new people learn our names and faces quickly. They also make it easier for you to identify a new person when they are attending worship - and welcome them warmly! If you do not have a permanent name tag, please contact the church office to ask for one.

When new name tags are made, they "debut" in the lobby near the kitchen so you can find them easily. If you see a new person, please ask them if they'd like a name tag and let them know they can simply make a note of it in the attendance pad on Sunday morning.

Another way you can greet our visitors warmly is to offer them a bag of popcorn and thank them for "popping in." The popcorn is located in the small table in the narthex (the entry off Poyntz). If you see families with young children, be sure to help them by showing them the pew cards with information about our children's ministries. And, as always, it's always lovely to offer to walk someone into coffee hour after worship, visit for a few minutes, and then introduce them to someone new.

Thanks for making First Congregational UCC a warm and welcoming place for newcomers.

Vitality and Outreach Opportunities

The Vitality Committee is planning some meaningful and exciting activities for church members and friends in 2017. We started off with Dinner and Decorating on February 11. About 25 showed up for pizza, making love decorations and decorating (and eating) heart-shaped cookies. A big thanks to Sue Gerth, our Craft Queen, for providing materials and coaching for all ages to make cards and banners. Many cards were made and left for the church to use for those who might need a message of love during the year.

March 6-12 is Stand By Our Muslim Neighbors week and we will kick off the week with a joint gathering with some of our Muslim neighbors here in Manhattan on Sunday morning, March 5. Caela is working with Haroon from the Islamic Center and Sajid from the Muslim Student Association to plan the sermon. They will bring other guests, so we will have a substantial and extended Fellowship Hour. Keep an eye out for more details. In addition, we will have signs that say “No matter where you are from, we’re glad you’re our neighbor” in Spanish, English and Arabic for you to put in your yard or window. March 13 is an advocacy event in Topeka organized by Kansas Interfaith Action.

On Tuesday, March 14, from 7-8:30, the Vitality Committee invites members and friends to a Social Justice Write-In, a casual event for people to spend time together reading and writing or just sitting quietly in community. You might write to local policy makers, a neighbor, a close or estranged family member, or in your diary. We will provide coffee and tea, as well as writing materials and stamps. Feel free to bring your supper or snacks. Contact Rachel Gintner for information or suggestions.

*No importa de dónde eres,

April is our annual Easter Pot Luck Brunch. The next Dinner and Discussion will be about Fair Trade, with the owner of the new Fair Trade store on Poyntz (no date yet). June is sexual diversity month and we're developing a program. Also in the works is an Underground Railroad Tour for families, to which we will invite our Bethel neighbors. The church has a copy of the documentary ("Dawn of Day") made by the K-State College of Education about the local underground railroad, or you can download it from the college website. We're also getting more Black Lives Matter buttons, as well as some of the other favorites.

If you have suggestions or if you'd like to help out with any of these planned activities, we would love your input! Let any of us know - Linda Thurston, Craig Weston, Rachel Gintner, Sue Gerth, Andrew Wymer, Rita Henry.

Adult Education & Formation Opportunities During Lent

Adult Sunday School Book Study

March 12 through April 2 (four weeks) at 9:30 a.m.

Join us for our Lenten Study of Accidental Saints: Finding God in All the Wrong People by Nadia Bolz-Weber. Craig Weston will lead us in an exploration of this New York Times bestselling author's newest book, where she invites readers to accompany her on what she calls her "religious but not-so-spiritual" life. From the publisher: "Tattooed, angry, and profane, this former standup comic turned pastor stubbornly, sometimes hilariously, resists the God she feels called to serve. But God keeps showing up in the least likely of people—a church-loving agnostic, a drag queen, a felonious Bishop, and a gun-toting member of the NRA." If you'd like the church office to order you a copy of the book, please let us know by Monday, March 6th.

"Choose Your Own Adventure" Lengthen Your Faith This Lent

Lent comes from the word "lengthen." As the days get longer, God invites us to stretch, lengthen, grow as we send our roots down deep into the soil of our faith. Do you find it difficult to pray? Would you like to be more grounded...but don't know where to start? Join us and "choose your own adventure" this Lent.

Caela will be using the document "Spiritual Practices that Sustain" as a jumping off point for a conversation on how to find a sense of peace and connect with a solid center in the midst of a rapidly-changing world. You can find her on Thursday, Mar. 2 (join us for Taizé at 7pm and then walk down to Tallgrass Taphouse by 8pm) or on Saturday, Mar. 11 at 9:00am at the church (continental breakfast provided, contact children@uccmanhattan.org if you need childcare).

Faith through the Seasons

Each season of life brings different questions of faith, meaning, and understanding our place in the world. At every age, there are amazing opportunities for growth and tough challenges. This five week series starting April 23, led by Sean Weston, will explore the questions and struggles people face on their faith journeys in each decade of life. Based on the experiences of those who participate as well as research on faith development, we will seek to be strengthened in our faith journeys and grow in our understandings of ourselves and people of all ages.

Lent and Easter

Lent is the 40 days preceding Easter and is a time when Christians traditionally cultivate their faith in more intensive ways. For some this may include giving something up or adding in a new spiritual practice. As a gathered community, we always include additional focused opportunities for worship and communal prayer.

ECM Notebook

Ecumenical Campus Ministry is a cooperative ministry at K-State supported by the Presbyterian Church (USA), the United Church of Christ, and the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). www.ksu.edu/ecm

The Ecumenical Campus Ministry, located at 904 Sunset Avenue, is this congregation's campus-based ministry to Kansas State University. In recent years the average weekly attendance at ECM-sponsored activities has been around 100 participants. ECM's best-attended program is Real Food Lunch, which is served each Friday from 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. when classes are in session. The RFL mission is "to promote the development of healthier lifestyles and more sustainable relationships among members of the university and Manhattan communities by educating students and others about the importance of producing, preparing, serving, sharing and disposing of food in ways that allow our bodies, our social relationships and our planet to flourish." Student coordinators and their volunteers are responsible for all aspects of the ministry, and would welcome visitors from the congregation on any Friday to come, see and share a meal, meet students and gain a better sense of the ministry happening through ECM.

Cobb Corner — Going Green

“How we spend our days is, of course, how we spend our lives.” Annie Dillard

As spring approaches, it's a good time to consider how we can enhance the quality of our days. For 100 years we've had the luxury of knowing that “America's Best Idea” – the National Parks – were there to enjoy, to explore, and to endure as the common treasure of all our people.

Today, the importance of appreciating the parks and protecting them from commercialization and neglect has never been so vital. An excellent article, “Finding the Time for our Parks” by John de Graaf in Utne Reader, Fall 2016, pp 74-79, highlights the dilemma.

Americans today have substituted screen time for far less time in the parks. A generation ago, the average visitor to Yosemite spent 48 hours discovering the park. Today the average is 4 hours. Visitors to the Grand Canyon currently spend an average of 17 minutes looking into the canyon from its many vantage points! DeGraaf cites one man who yelled to his kids: “Stay in the car, I'll get the shot.” (p.74)

More appreciative are the 25% of park visitors from overseas. They stay much longer and are more likely to camp and hike. They recognize what a unique treasure these parks are.

Unless Americans increasingly advocate for, support and use the parks there will be no political and economic pressure for preserving them from mining, drilling or other commercial uses. Currently, there is a $12 billion backlog for park maintenance. (p. 74) Meanwhile, the price tag for expanding a wall on our southern border to keep people out is projected to be more than $5 billion! Which of these expenditures best reflects our vision and protects our heritage ?

By visiting the national parks, we can vote with our time and resources for their preservation and ours. — Linda Richter

The Second Helping

Our Second Helping ministry continues to be a wonderful way in which our church extends its mission to the community of Manhattan. We regularly serve 25-35 people each week. Many of you have helped with this mission in a variety of ways, and that is much appreciated!

Currently we are hoping to add some more volunteers to our list of "regulars." We are particularly in need of individuals who would be willing to serve as Head Cook and Church Host. If you are interested in learning more about either of these positions, or volunteering in other ways, please contact Ann Smit

Age Into Action: An Active Aging Expo

Saturday, April 8, 2017, 9 am - 3 pm
St. George Elementary School

In today's world, many of us will enjoy health and vitality that leads to longer life expectancies than previous generations. However, this means many individuals will spend a third of their lives in retirement. There are a lot of myths and beliefs about what it means to be "old," and society expects the aging population to conform to these expectations.

The truth is there is not a standard way of aging. Like any other life stage, it looks different for each of us, and there is no reason why this stage can't be the most meaningful of all. Join us to learn more about active aging in today's world.

Keynote Speaker: Gayle Doll, Director of KSU Center on Aging

Breakout Session Topics: Understanding dementia, Eating for health, Senior Safety, Staying connected through volunteer opportunities, Cooking for one or two, Addressing tough topics in families, Flint Hills quilt trail, Container gardening, To drive or not to drive, Birdwatching
