Fall: A Time for Learning

Orange and yellow leaves are still a long way off, but as we turn the calendar to August we switch back into “fall mode” at First Congregational. Our big “kick off” Sunday for the fall semester is August 19th. We will bless backpacks and teacher that morning in worship and party with our neighbors that evening at Feast and Festival. At 9:30 on the 19th we will also gather together as the Sunday School year begins.

I am so thankful for those who volunteer their time and energy with our robust Christian formation ministries at First Congregational. Throughout the school year we offer Sunday School for all ages from 9:30-10:30am each Sunday morning. The nursery is available for children 3 and under so that siblings and caregivers can attend classes. In recent years we have also had some small groups that meet during the week and I’m delighted that Pastor Sue will again be leading a “chewy” [continued pg. 2] theology-focused class this fall on Thursdays, probably over the noon hour.

We have a great lineup of adult Sunday School options this fall, beginning with a four-week class led by Pastor Sue on what it means to be a part of the United Church of Christ. Other classes this fall semester will include a discussion of the book Fierce: Women of the Bible and Their Stories of Violence, Mercy, Bravery, Wisdom, Sex, and Salvation (led by Sara K Kearns), a class celebrating the 20th anniversary of Second Helping (coordinated by Pastor Sue and the Board of Mission), and an Advent class on exploring faith through our feelings (led by Rachel Shivers). You can find a full calendar of upcoming adult offerings at uccmanhattan.org/adult-education and on page ??? of this newsletter.

This fall we also kick off a new way of doing children's Sunday School. Each week of the month will have a different focus. The first Sunday of each month we invite the whole Manhattan community to join us for Yoga + Donuts. We will offer classes for three age groups on this Sunday (ages 3-Kindergarten, 1st-3rd grade, 4th-6th grade). Our volunteer teachers for the yoga program are Andria Anderson, Emily Brueseke, Susann Campbell, Tanya Gonzalez, Donna Keyser, Rachel Shivers, and me. On the 2nd and 3rd Sunday of each month, kids will learn about the Bible with Tracey Weston and Paulicia Williams using curriculum from Seasons of the Spirit. Fourth Sundays will be a children's choir, led by Andria Anderson. And on fifth Sundays we will engage the kids in service projects.

It's a wonderfully fulfilling thing to be able to ask questions and grow together. We look forward to seeing you at one (or more!) of our faith formation activities this fall.

Grow Green Results

The April Grow Green fundraiser at the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation (GMCF) was a great success. As part of the Grow Green event, members and friends of First Congregational had an opportunity to donate to the church's account at GMCF, with a 50% match made available to the church immediately. This year, Grow Green contributions totaled $7,830. The 50% match came to $3,915, and there was an additional $100 hourly door prize won by Dave Manning, which he designated to First Congregational. Thanks to all the people who gave generously to this fundraiser, with special thanks to Dave Manning. We are also grateful to GMCF for hosting the Grow Green event, which benefits many organizations in Manhattan.

We're Hiring and Need Your Help!

Can you help us find our next part-time Director of Children's Ministries? We've been so blessed by Andria Anderson's presence in this position for the past two years. Andria finished her employment with us at the end of July and looks forward to simply being a part of our congregation as a member in the future. The Board of Christian Education has put together a position posting and it can be found on our website at uccmanhattan.org/work-with-us. Hard copies are also available in the lobby.

This part-time staff member works with the Board of CE and Pastor Caela to oversee all children's ministries. The position averages 8-10 hours a week and requires Sunday morning availability. Name Tags = Hospitality

As we prepare to welcome newcomers in August, a quick reminder to please wear your name tag each Sunday during worship. Name tags help new people learn our names and faces quickly. They also make it easier for you to identify a new person when they are attending worship - and welcome them warmly! If you do not have a permanent name tag, please contact the church office to ask for one. When new name tags are made, they "debut" in the lobby near the kitchen so you can find them easily. If you see a new person, please ask them if they'd like a name tag and let them know they can simply make a note of it in the attendance pad on Sunday morning. Another way you can greet our visitors warmly is to offer them a bag of popcorn and thank them for "popping in." The popcorn is located in the small table in the narthex (the entry off Poyntz). If you see families with young children, be sure to help them by showing them the pew cards with information about our children's ministries. And, as always, it's always lovely to offer to walk someone into coffee hour after worship, visit for a few minutes, and then introduce them to someone new. Thanks for making First Congregational UCC a warm and welcoming place for newcomers.

Mutuality of Hospitality

Last Sunday Pastor Caela talked about the Mutuality of Hospitality. Second Helping, the community meals we plan, prepare, and serve every Sunday in Pioneer-Blachly provide hot meals for those in the community who need food and conversation. Second Helping also blesses us with the opportunity to visit with guests and volunteers and an opportunity to serve God's children.

Did you know?

Second Helping serves 100-150 hot meals every month. We also provide sack breakfast/lunches for all our guests. What does it take to provide up to 300 meals a month:

Volunteers: cooks, kitchen crews, church hosts, and coordinators who plan meals, order food, and pick up groceries and supplies. That's a minimum of 10 people a week! (and about 27-30 hours a week!)

Supplies: the church budget provides most of our supplies and paper products. We use over 100 sandwich bags a week, which we fill with sandwiches, cookies, and carrots and celery.

Food: During the school year, we often receive food recovered from the K-State training table, which is frozen for use to store and use as needed. We also receive some commodities, such as ground beef, noodles, rice, and canned fruit and vegetables. We purchase needed weekly groceries at Hy-Vee at a discount. We often need to buy:

- 4 loaves a bread a week
- 35 breakfast bars a week
- 70 – 105 cookies a week
- 70 packages of instant oatmeal a week
- dinner rolls (about 4 dozen)
- 35 packaged peanut butter or cheese crackers a week

Donations: On the first Sunday of every month, we collect food items and cash donations that go to providing our meals. Church volunteers sometimes bring dessert for our Sunday meals. Others bring produce or extra food and beverages from catered events.

Wondering how you can be a part of Second Helping? You can:

- Volunteer to be a church host (training provided).
- Volunteer to cook or be part of the kitchen crew (training provided).
- Sign up to provide dessert for 35-40 on Sunday evening.
- Give a cash donation.
- Include our guests and volunteers in your prayers.
- Donate food: breakfast bars, packaged cookies (Oreos are very popular), instant oatmeal packet, packaged cheese crackers,
 - And our guests appreciate fresh produce, fruit and home-made goodies. Last year we put out donated pears, tomatoes and cucumbers for our guests to take when they picked up their sack lunches—a big hit!

Our guests are thankful for our efforts – some help out as we set up or clean up. Guests have handed us coins to help with expenses. Others play the piano for the group or help others with more iced tea or coffee. And we as individuals and as the church are blessed by our guests and our community of volunteers.... The mutuality of hospitality.

Thinking of You post cards...

The "Thinking of You" cards located in the church pews are an awesome way to write a message to a member of our church family. It might be someone that you know is ill and needs some encouragement or someone you've missed seeing in church for awhile. All you have to do is write the person's name on the front and the message on the back. Sign the card, then drop it in the offering plate and Sandy, our administrative assistant, will mail the card. It might brighten someone's day beyond measure!

Mission Statement

The Mission of First Congregational United Church of Christ is

- To love and accept others unconditionally as God loves and accepts us, and by example, to encourage others to do the same.
- To challenge ourselves to grow spiritually through worship, education, nurture, reflection, discussion, fellowship, and outreach.
- To minister to others locally, nationally, and globally with the same fervor as we minister to ourselves, through the sharing of our talents, gifts, and resources.

We hold ourselves accountable before God for this mission.

Cobb Corner — Going Green

“I have set before you life and death....choose life.” – (Deut.30:19).
Foreword, The Green Bible.

Today I have a different sort of environmental issue to discuss.

I’m getting old. I can remember going to school without having to put my lunch box and books through a security scanner. I can remember fire drills but not lockdowns. I remember security being a nurse when I felt sick, a counselor when I was worried and a principal if I’d been mean to someone else. True, I remember a spanking ... at home when the school reported I’d pulled someone’s hair, but no one I remember had a felony or even a misdemeanor. It was pretty much that way for our kids.

I remember as a young adult planning to go to a play in London and wondering how we’d get back to our hotel after the subway train let us off at 11p.m. What could we do I asked the hotel clerk. “You could walk,” he said. “At that hour?” I asked. “Certainly, why not?”

I remember living in India during the Indo-Pakistan War. We had curfews and blackouts. We later lived in Pakistan and the Philippines under martial law. But I never saw a civilian with a gun.

It's different today. Now students can bring guns to campus. And after the Newtown massacre I remember the kids I tutored at Northview were encouraged to bring stuffed animals to class. I remember the principal had been so proud of her renovated classrooms which allowed her to monitor any classroom because of the glass walls. But now she worried that any shooter could also see into all those classrooms.

I remember when church was a true sanctuary from the week's frantic pace. But after the numerous church shootings I find myself sitting in church and wondering if I'd be safer in the back under the balcony or in front by the door.

Are more guns the answer to the over 150 mass shootings so far this year in the United States? Do we accept having the highest rate of gun violence of any developed country in the world? If we intend to conserve a decent way of life we'd better get active by supporting groups and voting for candidates that are trying to reduce gun violence.

A local group, Moms Demand Action, is a campaign of the national organization, Every Town for Gun Safety, which was launched the day after the Newtown tragedy. It has 130,000 members in 50 states. In 2013, it joined forces with Mayors Against Illegal Guns, a bi-partisan coalition of over 1000 mayors. For more information contact info.@everytown.org. Several other organizations also support responsible gun ownership while promoting legislation to protect public safety.

The coming elections could well determine if we get “caught in the cross-hairs” or give it our “best shot” for choosing life!

The Second Helping

Our Second Helping ministry continues to be a wonderful way in which our church extends its mission to the community of Manhattan. We regularly serve 25-35 people each week. Many of you have helped with this mission in a variety of ways, and that is much appreciated!

Currently we are hoping to add some more volunteers to our list of "regulars." We are particularly in need of individuals who would be willing to serve as Head Cook and Church Host. If you are interested in learning more about either of these positions, or volunteering in other ways, please contact Mary Ellen Barkley at the church office.

Ministry Opportunities (August edition)

Second Helping is in need of additional church hosts. The church host greets the guests, makes sure people have what they need, and generally monitors the progress of the meal. Volunteers will be paired with an experienced host until they feel comfortable with the position. The church hosts often get to know the guests over time, which is a privilege of the host position. If you would like to serve in this important role, please indicate your name and contact information on the line.

Grounds care in spring, summer, and fall requires mowing the church lawn, in addition to the church garden lot adjacent to the alley, prior to Sunday's worship (Thursday, Friday, or Saturday). In the winter it's a little different. Sign up for a whole week – Monday-Sunday – and if it snows, you "win" what is affectionately called the snow lottery. You've got to clear the walkways with the church snow blower.

Worship volunteers have many Sunday morning tasks. They greet at the door, read scripture, host fellowship hour, usher, contribute flowers, and offer the Word for Children. Sign up is easy!
