Alicia has served as our pianist since January 2023. Alicia grew up in Kansas City, but has called Manhattan home since 2016. She has been an active pianist since 1995, as well as performing often as a freelance vocalist, percussionist, and composer. Alicia graduated from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts in 2012 with a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Composition, and is a member of the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers (ASCAP). She has served as pianist for First United Methodist Church in Overland Park; Fairbanks Lutheran Church in Fairbanks, Alaska; and First Lutheran Church in Manhattan. Alicia also plays at Kansas State University as a freelance accompanist, and has enjoyed serving as Music Director at Manhattan Arts Center, The Columbian Theater in Wamego, and Great Plains Theatre in Abilene. In her spare time, Alicia enjoys horseback riding, reading, crafting, and acting in local theater productions. She loves spending time with her husband, dog, and 3 cats.
