

FLINT HILLS COMMUNITY GOSPEL SING

AN EXCITING OPPORTUNITY FEATURING:

David Dupree, Clinician/Director

Even if you've never sung Gospel music before, and even if you don't sing in a choir, you can experience the joy of learning and performing music in this cherished American tradition. You don't have to read music either—David teaches the group the music. And if you do read music and you think you depend on a score, well, this will be a different musical experience.

Sat., Feb. 17th: 9:30am rehearsal, 12:30pm lunch (provided)

1:30pm rehearsal

Sun., Feb. 18th: 1:00pm rehearsal, 2:30pm performance.

INTERESTED? HERE ARE THREE THINGS YOU CAN DO TO HELP

- We ask you to please register to sing at the website: <https://goo.gl/FuzntX>. The announcement will soon be available on the First Congregational and First Methodist websites, and on KSU campus calendars. (Registration: $5 - due at first rehearsal)
- We ask you to publicize the event to other people who might be interested. We hope to have broad representation from the Flint Hills community, including students.
- We also welcome donations. We have seed money for this event from the Jerry and Atina Hanna fund at First Congregational Church, and from the Dow Center for Multicultural and Community Studies. However, we still need to raise about $2,500 to make this event happen, so contributions would be welcome, as would in-kind contributions for the lunch for the singers. Offers to help with the lunch and reception would also be welcome.

HELP US MAKE THIS A JOYFUL COMMUNITY-WIDE EVENT!
