The screenshot shows the Manhattan Public Library website. At the top is the library's logo and a navigation menu with links for MY ACCOUNT, EVENTS, SERVICES, ABOUT US, and READING & RESEARCH. A red banner below the menu states: "The library is still closed to the public. Plans for reopening are now available on our [Coronavirus \[COVID-19\] Information](#) page." The main content area features a large "STAY CONNECTED" banner for the library's e-newsletter, a "Catalog Search" form with a search bar and a dropdown menu, and a vertical "Niche Academy" banner on the right. A red arrow points from the "Digital Library" link in the bottom navigation bar to the "Digital Library" section below. The bottom navigation bar includes links for Online Resources, Digital Library, and Get a Library Card. The "Digital Library" section displays logos for Kanopy, Hoopla, and Flipster, along with a description: "Check out our ebooks, audiobooks, and movies with access to over 500,000+ titles." The "Get a Library Card" section features a banner for Manhattan residents to apply for a library card today, with a description: "Access thousands of online materials while the library is closed to the public."
