Rest, Renewal, Rejoicing

As you receive this newsletter at your home, my sabbatical is beginning to unfold. I give thanks for the many capable congregational leaders and staff who have helped prepare our congregation for this liminal time. I am so grateful for the five years of ministry we have already shared together and look forward with eager anticipation to discover what the Spirit has in store for us when I return!

But, first: it's time for sabbath. You've already heard from our church leadership about what this will look like for our congregation. And if you have any questions, I hope you'll reach out to the church office or Moderator, Kerri Keller, to find answers. You may also be wondering what this period of sabbath will look like for me!

I have structured my sabbatical around the themes of rest, renewal, and rejoicing. First, God's great gift of REST. An opportunity to remember that we can all step aside and the world will keep spinning without us. A chance for others to try new things in our absence. A commandment for us to put aside to do lists for a time. Although I can still scarcely imagine what it will [continued pg. 2] be like to unplug from e-mail, facebook messages, texts, and my unending to do list....I'm going to do my best to take God's commandment seriously. I am looking forward to reading all the books that have been piling up for ages and spending copious amounts of time in nature. Rest is a sacred gift. Thanks be to God.

Next, RENEWAL. My regular work of sermon and worship preparation are major spiritual disciplines in my life. What will it look like for me to renew my relationship with the Holy without those anchors? I've recently begun working with a spiritual director and she's been helping me think through that very question. I will continue to meet with her on a regular basis during my sabbatical. I am also participating in two retreats: one is an online class on Teresa of Avila's Interior Castle with the Center for Action and Contemplation, the other will be a retreat with the Benedictine sisters in Atchison. Additionally, I'm looking forward to having more time for meditation, my yoga practice, and connecting with other faith communities. I'll be worshipping with our friends at Mayflower UCC in Oklahoma City this first Sunday in May and have plans to visit the Kansas Buddhist Center in Lawrence, among others. Renewal is a sacred gift. Thanks be to God.

Finally, REJOICING! The longer I live, the more seriously I take the practice of cultivating joy. I plan to nurture relationships and share joyful experiences with those nearest and dearest to me....regular lunch dates with my husband, travel with my immediate family, visits with my brother in Minnesota, a road trip with my mom, and a couple of much-needed "girls' weekends" will all be happening. I also anticipate lots of time for more mundane, deep, personal, everyday joy....riding my bicycle alone for long stretches, reading poetry, soaking up the sun while playing catch with my boys, and more. Rejoicing is a sacred gift. Thanks be to God!

I look forward to August 18th, when I return to worship with you. With gratitude....

Ministry of the Decorative Scissors

The Ministry of the Decorative Scissors meets May 9-11. Everyone is welcome. There are no guarantees that you will complete any projects, but you will have fun and meet delightful people. Come for an hour or for the whole time! Feel free to bring a snack to share. For more information, contact Sue Gerth.

Lunch Bunch May 1

We join together in an opportunity to get to know one another, Wednesday, May 1 at Cox Brothers BBQ (223 McCall Rd). Everyone is welcome to join us for lunch at 11:30 a.m.

From the Trustees

The trustees have undertaken several projects so far this year. Number one was the completion of the roof project. Our flat roofs are now in great shape which should alleviate leaks. The outside doors in Pioneer Hall have been refurbished and re-hung. Please take a look when you have time. They look great.

We are still working on installing picture rail around the perimeter of Pioneer so that we may hang artwork or pictures and not damage the walls.

Of great importance to everyone, we are installing a security system on the doors by the offices. This will include a buzzer and camera that will be controlled in each office. You will have to buzz in to enter during the day. We feel this is a much needed step to increase security during the weekdays. Of course, the doors will be open for activities and worship time. We will present more on this for the congregation closer to installation.

We have decided to close the balcony for Sunday worship except for the youth Sacred Space and for those approved by the ushers to use the balcony. This is another safety measure that also promotes fellowship by having visitors sit downstairs. The balcony will be open for special occasions.

We will be working on installing a flat screen TV in the building that can be used for classes, meetings, and possibly video-conferencing. This is a new project that we are undertaking thanks to a generous donation of a 55 inch flat screen recently.

In addition to these projects we continue to work on maintenance items as they occur and seek ways to promote the use of our facility in a safe and secure manner.

– Jeff Watson, Board of Trustees

Spring 2019: Sunday School Opportunities for Adults

April 28 - May 19 / Fierce Women of the Bible: Part 2 Led by Sara K Kearns

We didn't get a chance to discuss this book as thoroughly as we wanted to in the fall semester, so we're bringing it back! From the publisher: "Women in the Bible - some of their names we know, others we've only heard, and others are tragically unnamed." Pastor and provocateur Alice Connor introduces these women and invites us to see them not as players in a man's story - as victims or tempters - nor as morality archetypes, teaching us to be better wives and mothers, but as fierce foremothers of the faith. These women's stories are messy, challenging, and beautiful. When we read their stories, we can see not only their particular, fearsome lives but also our own."

Education Update

May 19th is the final Sunday for adult, youth, and children's Sunday School until August.

We'll thank all our Christian Education teachers and participants and celebrate them in worship on that day.

Second Helping News

Seeking Volunteer Coordinator

Have you wanted to be a part of our Second Helping ministry, but find that other obligations make it impossible to commit to Sunday afternoons? The Second Helping depends on volunteers of all sorts: cooks, servers, hosts, and people to recruit others to do this meaningful and fulfilling work. After nine years on the job, our Second Helping Volunteer Coordinator Mary Ellen Barkley is stepping down, and we need someone to take her place as Volunteer Coordinator, beginning May 1st. If this sounds too daunting, rest assured that many of the volunteers for the month of May are already in place; we have two head cooks who volunteer each month, plus church members and outside groups who volunteer on a regular basis. Mary Ellen has indicated that she will be happy to work with a new Coordinator, sharing contacts and ideas for volunteer recruiting.

If you would like more information, or if you know you would like to help out in this vital ministry in our church, please speak to anyone on the Board of Missions: Gretchen Lewis, Ann Smit, Jackie Kerstetter, Olivia Collins, or Martha Mather, or indicate your interest to Pastor Sue. Thank you!

Head Cook Orientation and Training

Second Helping is a vital mission of our congregation. We served 154 hot meals on Sunday evenings in March. Counting breakfast and lunches provided in our to-go bags, that's at least 462 meals! Our diligent cooks and wonderful hosts and volunteers make it happen. You can be part of this effort by volunteering as a kitchen crew, a host or a head cook. We will have a Head Cook Orientation and Training for all new Head Cooks, "old" Head Cooks, and wanna-be-Head-Cook-sometime-in-the-future-maybes. Learn about:

- How Second Helping works
- H.C. role and responsibilities
- Managing your volunteer team
- Food safety

Please consider this opportunity, being held on Friday, May 10 at 5PM. We'll make a light supper and end the evening with a meal together. Please let Linda Thurston or Gretchen Lewis know of your interest.

Cobb Corner — Going Green

“A society in which consumption has to be artificially stimulated in order to keep production going is a society founded on trash and waste and such a society is a house built on sand.”

– Dorothy Sayers, The Green Bible, 1-109.

I am indebted to Carol Sevin for introducing me to a wonderful association: BUY NOTHING. It is built around sharing everything from time to recipes to lawnmowers and tools and giving everything, including care, money, training and companionship. It is both nationwide and local. Check out these websites Carol provided:

BUY NOTHING represents quite a contrast with business as usual. A recent article noted that in 1929 the average man had six work outfits and the average woman had nine outfits. Today the average American buys five items of clothing each month! Moreover, 84% of unwanted attire ends up in landfills!

There’s no excuse for this. Damaged clothes can be fixed, mended or used for rags, doll clothes and pet bedding to name only a few possibilities. Other unwanted items can be sold in garage sales or church rummage sales, or donated to thrift stores. Several exist in less than three blocks from our church on Poyntz!

Re-Store, an arm of Habitat for Humanity, will pick up tools, furniture, paint, cleaning items to be later sold at their store, with the proceedings going toward housing for the poor. Such items could also be shared with the BUY NOTHING groups in our area!

Let’s use this Spring as an opportunity to clean not only our houses but our minds to think more humanely and sustainably.

Backpacks of Hope Return to First Congregational UCC

Jesus challenges us to love God and our neighbors, and it seems that we are faced daily with the reality of neighbors in need. In recent years, under the leadership of Susanne Gilmore and Church World Service, we have had two separate collections of supplies to help our neighbors who are arriving at our southern border, and the Board of Missions has decided it is time for another. Specifically, we are again collecting adult and children's backpacks to be distributed to sponsored women and children who are being released from detention and sent on buses to their sponsors. The need is great, and this is one way we can help.

During the May, we will be collecting the following items:

Adult/child backpacks

Small Blankets (4 ft. x 6 ft.); new or gently used

Small stuffed animals (approx. 6 x 8 in.)

The donations can be dropped off in the bin located in the lobby. The collection deadline will be June 1, 2019. For additional questions or comments please contact Susanne Gilmore or speak to someone on the Board of Missions: Olivia Collins, Jackie Kerstetter, Gretchen Lewis, Martha Mather, or Ann Smit.

Mission Statement

The Mission of First Congregational United Church of Christ is

- To love and accept others unconditionally as God loves and accepts us, and by example, to encourage others to do the same.
- To challenge ourselves to grow spiritually through worship, education, nurture, reflection, discussion, fellowship, and outreach.
- To minister to others locally, nationally, and globally with the same fervor as we minister to ourselves, through the sharing of our talents, gifts, and resources.

We hold ourselves accountable before God for this mission.

The Second Helping

Our Second Helping ministry continues to be a wonderful way in which our church extends its mission to the community of Manhattan. We regularly serve 30-40 people each week. Many of you have helped with this mission in a variety of ways, and that is much appreciated!

Currently we are hoping to add some more volunteers to our list of "regulars." We are particularly in need of individuals who would be willing to serve as Head Cook and Church Host. If you are interested in learning more about either of these positions, or volunteering in other ways, please contact the church office.

From Vitality

A big thank you to those who were able to walk with us in the Pride Parade and help with our booth at the Festival. We gave away 250 love stickers and about 125 buttons about pride and other social justice issues. The volunteers enjoyed talking to community members about the work of our church in the community.

Save the date: The KIFA (Kansas Interfaith Action) annual dinner is on June 5 in Topeka. Last year the Vitality committee was honored with the KIFA award for “Faith in Action” in the state. The speaker this year is Rev. Dr. Liz Theoharis, with the Poor People’s National Campaign and the honorary event chairs are Kris and Lt. Gov. Lynn Rogers. Keep an eye out for more information. Let’s get a good contingent from FCUCC to this important event.
